

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE Alumni Association of Woman's College, this city, will give its annual reception to the graduating class of the college on Friday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at No. 503 Lombardy Street, the home of Mrs. R. E. Gaines. The affair promises to be unusually attractive, the committee in charge being Mrs. Hampton Fleming, Mrs. Charles Winston, Mrs. T. D. Epps and Mrs. Gaines.

The receiving line will include the officers of the association, Mrs. Hampton Fleming, president; Mrs. Lily Becker and Mrs. Turpin, vice-presidents; Miss Miriam Millner, recording secretary; Miss Louise Thomason, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. C. S. Fensom, treasurer.

Those assisting in the dining room will be young ladies of the class of '08, and will include Miss Carrie Williamson, Miss Dorothy Hart, Miss Mary Atwell, Miss Helen Gregory, Miss McPhail Connally and Miss Marie Duval.

An attractive program will have vocal selections rendered by Mrs. W. A. Shepherd. This work of the association for the ensuing year will center on the new college, and will be especially inspiring. Mrs. Hampton Fleming, the recently elected president of the association, has already many plans for the winter. The reception on Friday will afford the alumnae the double pleasure of meeting the members of the class of '08 and of making the acquaintance of Mrs. Fleming.

Finney—Boteler.
The wedding of Miss Mary Gittings Boteler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boteler, of Halifax county, to Mr. Robert Gordon Finney, was celebrated at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in St. John's Episcopal Church, Houston, Va.

The bride was gowned in gray broadcloth, and wore a large picture hat. Her flowers were bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was given away by her father and attended by Miss Helen Crampton, of Washington, as maid of honor; Miss Katherine Crampton, of Washington, and Miss Elizabeth Bouldin, of Houston, officiating as bridesmaids.

Mr. Harry Whiting Finney, a brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers, Messrs. Basil D. Boteler, Percy Wood Finney, Erskine Gordon, of Washington, and Norwood Bentley, of Richmond.

The bridal party was given a dance by Miss Elizabeth Bouldin Monday night, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents Tuesday night, after the rehearsal.

Mrs. Finney is a most attractive young woman, and most popularly known in Halifax county, where her father has resided since his removal from Alexandria county. He was one of the originators of the movement for the building of the Great Falls and Old Dominion Railroad, and was associated with it as general manager. Mr. Finney belongs to the Powhatan county family of his name, and is now a member of the Alexandria county and Washington bar. He has an extensive acquaintance throughout the State on account of his being chief of agriculture during the Jamestown Exposition. After a wedding tour, he will take his bride to Washington to live.

Richmond Chapter Meet.
A large meeting of Richmond Chapter was held yesterday forenoon in Lee Camp Hall, with the president, Mrs. N. V. Randolph, in the chair. One of the most interesting questions of the meeting was the question of the Wirz monument. Mrs. Randolph having received a letter from the president of the chapter in Augusta, Ga., expressing the hope that the Richmond chapter would receive the monument and that it would be located in Richmond.

As no official notification has yet come to the chapter regarding the monument, Mrs. Randolph, who has already replied favorably to the communication from Augusta, appointed a committee including Mrs. Edgar D. Taylor, Miss Bettie Ellyson, Mrs. John Teefer, Mrs. C. W. Massie and herself, to confer with the members of R. E. Lee Camp next Friday evening and decide what action had best be taken.

Mrs. B. A. Blenner read a report of the convention at Atlanta, and gave a most interesting account of the hospitality of the Atlanta Daughters, and the many beautiful entertainments proffered their convention guests. The report was listened to with much pleasure.

Miss Annie May Moorman, of Kirkwood-Otey Chapter, Lynchburg, was present, and, on her invitation, a number of the ladies of Richmond Chapter decided to attend a "Fete in Flowerland," to be given on the afternoon and evening of November 28th, in the

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can

PROVE IT!

The Great DANDERINE Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results.

It enlivens and invigorates the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, resulting in a continuous and increasing growth of the hair.

Letters of praise are continually coming in from nearly all parts of the country stating that Danderine has renewed the growth of hair in cases that were considered absolutely hopeless.

A lady from Brooklyn writes: "After a short trial my hair stopped falling, and I now have a lovely head of hair, very heavy and over one and a quarter yards long."

Danderine stimulates the scalp, makes it healthy and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp invigorator known. It is a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a small bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land; 3 sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00

Free To show how quickly Danderine will grow a large sample free by return mail. Write to the nearest Danderine Co., Chicago, and a free coupon to the nearest Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and we will send you a sample to pay postage.
